

back the days off <sup>my</sup> Childhood and i thought i was really in Amsterdam but to proceed We returned to our boarding house after dinner.
Mr. Louer took me down to his boarding house that was about two miles and remained there til almost six o'clock he has a splendid room fitted up for himself in great style after that We went to a family by the name off Camps a ~~Low dutch family~~ Merchant that is worth about eight thousand dollars We staid there a little while and than Mr. Louer and Mr. Camp and Jacob and myself Wasted down Broadway Mr. Louer observed to me he thought that my supper would be over and proposed to go to a saloon and take supper so We did and call for four suppers elegantly served up after that he would have me to go to the great Castle garden one off the most splendid places i ever saw there was at least about ten thousand persons there they played sacred music til ten o'clock after that i went home and went to bed after spending a very laborious sabbath Newyork certainly is one off greatest places in the united states Jacob is well and is very well contented i think that this week or next week he wil get a Sutterine give my best love to my children and a kiss to my wife Dick Newyork is a place to spend money if a man has it nothing more at present but remain

Jour. H. G. Kiel

Mr. Louer sends his respects to you all